

The purpose (subject) of the Association is the coordination of the economic activities of the founders (participants) involved in the production (provision of services, implementation) of technical means of rehabilitation, prosthetic and orthopedic products, medical equipment, orthopedic equipment, medical products, and other participants, related to the prosthetic and orthopedic branch, without the right to interfere with their production and commercial activities and to make managerial decisions.

The conditions for the principles of coordination of economic activities of the Association's members are: - The Association may coordinate the activities of the participants only on the following issues:

1. Technical information and education of the Association's members, namely:

a) Clarification of the goals of the Association by organizing lectures, discussions, seminars and conferences, speeches in mass media, providing consultations, attracting local and foreign consultants;

b) Distribution of achievements of science, technical knowledge, best practices on effective technologies, and implementation of measures for reducing costs, environmentally sound technologies;

c) Formation of the system of professional training of its participants, regular publication of information on the work of the Association and its participants, on branch problems, foreign experience;

d) Organization of analytical works on management and marketing in the involved markets and regular distribution of the results of these works among the members of the Association;

e) Providing of methodological assistance to the Association's members while eliminating shortcomings in the work or professional development of the members of the Association.

2. Provision of information, namely: gathering among the members of the Association data only on production and facility; issues that arise in the course of the activities of the members of the Association, in order to find the best ways to solve them; information that can contribute to the establishment and development of relations with authorities and other organizations; technical information and education of the Association's members, the distribution of which is provided for in subparagraphs b), c) of paragraph 1 of this section.

The collected data is distributed in a summarized form not earlier than a month after its collection and can not be used against members of the Association, competitors or consumers and contain data on essential conditions of economic activity, prices, commercial strategies of economic activity, the distribution of which may contribute to the coordination of competitive behavior and the ability to predict the behavior of other members of the Association, competitors and consumers.

3. In the field of standardization, namely: promotion of the efficiency of the functioning of the industry (market of goods) solely by developing, discussing and making proposals for objectively justified types of classifiers, quality standards of goods, operational reliability and safety, environmental standards.

4. Relations with the authorities and between the parties, namely:

a) Cooperation with authorities only in matters of regulatory and legal regulation of the general principles of functioning in the market of goods;

b) Protection of the interests of the Association's members in the bodies of state power, as well as in other organizations both in Ukraine and abroad;

c) Facilitating the creation of conditions for the exit of the Association members into foreign markets.